STORYBOOK

1 Theme-based Literacy Program

- Not just a reading program but a comprehensive program, building both speaking and listening, as well as reading and writing capacities based on storybooks.
- All themes come from established school curriculums, and are in accordance with early children's development in terms of cognition level, interests, and language ability. These themes can improve a student's language skills and knowledge about the world at the same time.

2 Systematic Language Program

- The materials that come with this 3 leveled (L1, L2, L3), three-year courses are quite diverse and fully integrated into all aspects of the program.
- Including 2 Storybooks, 1 Activity Book, E-Book, and a Teacher's Guide for each month of the program.

3 Professionally Made Program

- Jointly developed with the experienced content group who has developed school curriculums and textbooks as a partner of McGraw-Hill, Scott-Foresman, and Harcourt in the United States.
- Written by award-winning author, Anne Miranda and reading specialist, Mary Jane Martin. Illustrated in unique art styles from all over the world by over 70 international artists.

4 Teacher Friendly Program

- Providing abundant teachers' materials such as a Teacher's Guide, a variety of flashcards, phonics cards, and worksheets through our website (<http://eng.ebricks.co.kr>).

Level 1 | Summer Weather

Level 2 | Houses

Level 3 | Beach Shadows

Anne Miranda

Mary Jane Martin

Anne Miranda has been a freelance writer in the fields of educational and trade publishing for 34 years. She writes educational materials almost exclusively for pre-school and K-2 levels. She has contributed to reading, spelling, language arts, handwriting, math, social studies, and science programs.

For the last two decades, Mary Jane Martin has worked as an editorial director. During that time she conceived, directed, wrote, and edited hundreds of early primary literacy storybooks, workbooks, tests, and teacher's guides for major American publishers. Many of these storybooks are stand-alone library books and some are content driven.

LEVEL 1 ( ages 4 - 5 )

Students will learn about the things that are a part of their everyday lives. They will be able to name those things and understand the notion behind them.

UNIT 08 Present Continuous

Affirmatives and Negatives

- The present continuous tense tells about actions happening now.
- We use the verb be and -ing to the main verb to make the present continuous.
- To make a negative present continuous sentence, put not after the verb be.

Subjects	The Verb Be (not)	verb + ing
I	am / am not
He / She / It	is / is not	walking.
We / You / They	are / are not

Present continuous verbs have spelling rules.

Verbs	Rules	Examples
most verbs	+ -ing	read → reading help → helping
verbs ending in -e	delete the e + -ing	ride → riding write → writing
verbs ending in -ie	double the consonant + -ing	run → running cut → cutting
a vowel + a consonant	+ -ing	put → putting swim → swimming

A Write the -ing forms of the given verbs.

1 read	→ reading	2 write	→
3 run	→	4 swim	→
5 shake	→	6 help	→
7 put	→	8 make	→

B Complete the sentences using the given words in the present continuous tense.

1 cook	Luna	is	cooking	dinner for her family.
2 ride	My sister and I			bikes at the park.
3 not, drink	I			orange juice.
4 not, sit	The children			on the floor.
5 enjoy	People			the movie.

Questions

We make a yes/no question by putting the verb be before the subject.

Questions	Answers
Am I sleeping?	Yes, you are. No, you aren't.
Are you sleeping?	Yes, I am. No, I'm not.
Is he/she/it sleeping?	Yes, he/she/it is. No, he/she/it isn't.
Are you/we/they sleeping?	Yes, we/you/they are. No, we/you/they aren't.

We make an information question by putting what or where in front of a yes/no question.

ask about	Questions	Answers
a thing/an action	What are you eating?	I'm eating breakfast.
	What is Jane drawing?	She's drawing animals.
a place	Where are they going?	They're going to school.
	Where is Nick studying?	He's studying at the library.

A Change the sentences into questions.

1 She is teaching science.	→
2 They are drawing pictures.	→
3 The monkey is climbing a tree.	→
4 Joe is writing a story.	→
5 Your brothers are dancing.	→
6 I am helping my grandmother.	→

B Complete the questions with what or where and match the answers.

1	are you making?	• They're riding a ferry.
2	is Julie going?	• It's eating sunflower seeds.
3	are your friends riding?	• I'm making breakfast.
4	is the hamster eating?	• He's swimming in the pool.
5	is he swimming?	• She's going to the market.

Grammar Points

Essential grammar rules are presented through clear explanations and accurate charts to make learning easy and efficient.

Check-Up

Learners check the target grammar rules and how they are used in different contexts through various types of exercises.

Practice

It provides an increased variety of exercises that help learners build their grammar skills and confidence in English.

Practice

A Look, write O or X, and complete the sentences using the present continuous tense.

1 Mark	is	reading	a book. He	isn't	watching	TV.
2 Tina and Nick			milk. They			pasta.
3 Lila			on a bench. She			her bike.
4 Mike and I			pictures. We			papers.
5 I			in the pool. I			at the park.

Look and write the questions and answers.

Questions & Answers	1 Sam put on his socks	2 Mandy got to the library	3 you and Lily broke muffs	4 the dogs run in the field
1	What is Sam putting on?	He is putting on his socks
2		She
3		We
4		They

Correct It! Read and correct the underlined words.

A: Hey, Mike! Where you are going?
B: I'm going home. What are you doing here, Sarah?
A: I'm wait for bus number 10.
